Kenya Equity Market

SECURITY NAME	YTD	CURRENT PRICE	TARGET PRICE	UPSIDE (%)	INVESTMENT RATIONALE	RECOMMENDATIONS
KenGen Co. Plc	▲4.6%	9.60	11.40	▲18.6%	• Encouraging pipeline, which is expected be delivered in the near to medium term; expected to yield approximately 253.00 MW. • Projects including the raising of the Masinga dam to enhance water storage capacity and improving hydropower availability, will add to sustainable growth in energy generation. • Company continues to trim debt levels; this is evidenced by easing finance costs.	BUY
Safaricom Plc	▲13.4%	32.15	34.30	▲6.7%	• Core revenue growth remains steady. Promising Ethiopian market; losses continue to narrow. This market will add to Safaricom's growth story. • Increased interim dividend to KES 0.85 per share from KES 0.55 in FY'25; sustaining shareholders' returns. (The telco is likely to increase its final dividend, going by its historical dividend payouts)	HOLD
Kapchorua Tea Kenya	▲7.2%	248.25	260.50	▲4.9%	• Earnings were hit by weak global tea prices, but the half-year profit swung positive with strong operating performance. • Dividend history and brand strength remain supportive. • The company noted that Kenyan tea continues to outstrip global demand; also, external costs continue to rise.	HOLD
NCBA Group	▲6.8%	89.75	91.16	▲1.6%	• There remains a potential premium exit for investors amid the acquisition deal by Nedbank. • A moderate upside at the current level. • The bank has been prudent in managing the cost of funds (ramping up CASA deposits), which helps preserve margins.	HOLD
ABSA Bank Kenya	▲19.2%	29.45	25.25	▼8.6%	• The counter is trading above our target price, which warrants taking profit at this level. • Asset management business remains very resilient; will continue to contribute to the overall group performance.	SELL

Global Market

SECURITY NAME	YTD	CURRENT PRICE	TARGET PRICE	UPSIDE (%)	INVESTMENT RATIONALE	RECOMMENDATIONS
DoorDash Inc (DASH) EX: NASDAQ	▼22.1%	176.19	272.07	▲54.4%	• Expansion beyond core restaurant delivery into grocery, retail, and international markets has boosted gross order value and marketplace scale, supported by subscription and tech initiatives that enhance engagement. • Platform modernization and Deliveroo integration enhance operational efficiency and support stronger unit economics across local commerce services.	BUY
Bank of America Corp (BAC) EX: NYSE	▼4.1%	52.77	62.35	▲18.2%	• Latest results show net income and EPS growth with strong net interest income expansion, suggesting balanced revenue streams across lending, markets, and wealth management with solid asset and deposit growth. • Efficiency improvements, robust capital ratios, and a diversified business model underpin resilient fundamentals and support sustainable performance amid evolving macro conditions.	BUY
Apple Inc (AAPL) EX: NASDAQ	▼4.2%	260.58	292.70	▲12.3%	• Recent quarterly results delivered record revenue and EPS growth with unprecedented demand for iPhone and all-time highs in services, showcasing strong platform engagement and recurring income streams. • Massive installed base and ongoing expansion of ecosystem offerings provide high-margin, sticky revenue growth across global markets.	BUY
Walmart Inc (WMT) EX: NASDAQ	▲12.1%	124.87	129.60	▲3.8%	• Steady sales and e-commerce expansion continue to anchor revenue growth, with a new leadership driving digital and membership initiatives that help offset value-oriented consumer pressures. • However, conservative forward guidance and cautious outlook reflect near-term headwinds in consumer spending and margin uncertainty in a competitive retail environment.	HOLD
Occidental Petroleum Corporation (OXY) EX: NYSE	▲25.3%	51.53	48.72	▼5.5%	• Recent earnings show volatile revenue despite adjusted beats, as softer crude prices weigh on core upstream income. • Although operational discipline and balance-sheet repair have improved financial flexibility, broader commodity price risk and structural headwinds weigh on consistent profitability and near-term cash flow predictability.	SELL
