AIB-AXYS October 2024 Stock Recommendations

September 2024 Highlights

- East African Breweries Tender Offer for Uganda Breweries Ltd - East African Breweries PLC (EABL) announced a tender offer to purchase up to 2,177,995 ordinary shares, representing 1.81% of Uganda Breweries Limited (UBL). This move aims to increase EABL's ownership from 98.19% to potentially 100%. The offer, which commenced on 3rd September 2024 will run until 3rd March 2025, with a share price of 5,630 Ugandan Shillings per share. The company has notified relevant regulatory bodies in Kenya, Uganda, and Tanzania about the offer. If fully accepted, EABL will acquire complete ownership of UBL, further consolidating its position in the regional brewing market.

- Half-Year Earnings Season – More firms such as Longhorn Publishers, Home Afrika Limited, Homeboyz Entertainment and Unga Group released their Half Year 2024 earnings reports. The released results paint a nuanced picture of the business landscape, with companies demonstrating varying degrees of resilience and adaptability in the face of persistent economic headwinds.

- Easing Price Pressures – Latest statistics from the Kenya National Bureau of Statistics (KNBS) indicate that the headline inflation rate as measured by the consumer price index (CPI) decelerated to 3.6% in September 2024 from 4.4% in August 2024. Fuel inflation saw a significant drop, declining by 360bps to 1.1% from 4.7% in August 2024 while food inflation decelerated by 20bps to 5.1% in August 2024. Core inflation (Non-Food-Non-Fuel) eased marginally to 3.4% over the period under review.

- Kenyan Shilling Resilient - The Kenya shilling depreciated marginally against the USD to close at KES 129.20 versus KES 129.17 at the end of August 2024. We anticipate sustained stability of the shilling, underpinned by an improving current account balance, expected portfolio dollar inflows, and a projected recovery in key export sectors. However, the currency faces potential downside risks from increasing external debt-service obligations, which may exert pressure on foreign exchange reserves and overall currency performance in the medium term.

What does October 2024 Hold?

- October MPC Meeting – The next meeting of the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) is scheduled for 8th October 2024. We anticipate a reduction in the Central Bank Rate (CBR) driven by easing inflationary pressures and stabilization of the Kenyan Shilling.

September 2024 Equities Market Highlights

- On a monthly perspective, the market indices recorded an upward trend with the Nairobi All Share Index increasing by 3.3% m/m, NSE-20 increasing 5.8% m/m and NSE-10 increasing 3.4% m/m.

- Equities market turnover decreased 22.9 % m/m to KES 5.02Bn in September 2024 from KES 6.51Bn recorded in August 2024. On a yearly perspective, turnover decreased 3.7% from KES 5.21Bn. Market capitalization expanded by 3.5% m/m to KES 1.68Tn indicating mild investor wealth accumulation. We anticipate moderate market activity in the coming months, as rising portfolio rebalancing efforts contend with various sociopolitical headwinds. We expect the current discounted valuations of key blue-chip stocks to attract significant trading interest.

- Foreigners' participation contracted mildly to 42.5% of the total market activity with trading turnover decreasing in absolute terms. However, foreign sentiment shifted to bullish, resulting in net inflows of KES 28.7Mn. In our view, this shift signals a potential recovery in the equities segment.
