NCBA-Nedbank Deal

- The Nedbank–NCBA offer period is currently open and will close on 10th July 2026. Under the transaction, Nedbank seeks to acquire up to 66.0% of NCBA through a share-and-cash offer, valuing the transaction at approximately KES 109.90 Bn.
- Our view is that the transaction presents an attractive opportunity for shareholders, with the offer implying a premium to both the prevailing market price and our latest in-house valuation. Investors receiving Nedbank shares also gain exposure to a larger and more diversified pan-African banking franchise with a strong dividend track record.
- The transaction further strengthens NCBA's strategic position by combining its regional footprint and digital capabilities with Nedbank's balance sheet strength and corporate banking expertise. Our detailed house view of the transaction can be found (here).

TRIFIC Green USD I-REIT

- I-REIT – basically acquires properties, manages properties, and receives rental income from these properties, which it will, in turn, pass on to investors in a similar fashion as dividends in shares. Our view of the opportunity (here)
- Supported by annual rental escalation clauses, SEZ incentives, and a market maker to enhance liquidity, the REIT presents an attractive diversification opportunity for income-focused investors. Clients interested in participating can click the link for further details and the application.

AIB-AXYS Weekly Fixed Income Note

15th June 2026

Key Highlights

- Spot market Treasury bills remained oversubscribed, recording an overall subscription rate of 163.9%, albeit moderating from 227.4% recorded the previous week. Investor demand remained heavily concentrated in the 91-day paper, which attracted KES 32.83Bn in bids against an offer of KES 4.00Bn, signaling a continued preference for short-term liquidity positioning. The 182-day paper remained undersubscribed, receiving KES 4.38Bn in bids against KES 10.00Bn offered, while demand for the 364-day paper weakened further to KES 2.14Bn against an offer of KES 10.00Bn. The continued skew towards shorter tenors suggests investors remain cautious about locking in funds for longer durations amid elevated inflation expectations and evolving interest rate dynamics.
- The 91-day Treasury bill rate edged up to 8.71%. Similarly, yields on the 182-day paper recorded a marginal uptick of 7.54 bps, while the 364-day paper increased by 10.86 bps to 8.87%.
- The government is looking to raise KES 60.00Bn through the re-opening of the FXD1/2018/020 and FXD1/2021/025 bonds, which are earmarked for budgetary support in FY25/26. The bonds have a quoted tenor to maturity of 11.8 yrs and 20.0 yrs while the coupon rates are set at 13.2000% and 13.9240%, respectively. Bidding is set to close on 17th June 2026. We will be issuing further bidding guidance.
- In the results of the Treasury Bond Tap Sale for FXD1/2020/015 and FXD1/2018/025, the government registered a performance rate of 58.4%, with total bids received amounting to KES 8.76 Bn against a target of KES 15.00 Bn. The total amount accepted stood at KES 8.45 Bn. The allocated average rates for accepted bids settled at 13.3120% and 14.2304%, respectively, compared to coupon rates of 12.7560% and 13.4000%. The moderate subscription levels suggest a cautious investor stance as market participants continue to demand higher yields amid elevated inflation expectations and evolving monetary policy conditions.
- Across the secondary bond market, the value of bonds traded surged 150.4% w/w to KES 58.74 Bn from KES 23.47 Bn recorded a week prior. The NSE Bond Index witnessed a decrease of 128 bps w/w to 1,122.66 points, driven largely by an increase in the 20-year benchmark yields. The 20-year yield rose the most by 50.28 bps w/w, while the 7-year yield eased the most by 0.16 bps w/w. The overall increase in yields suggests investors continued to demand higher risk premiums amid rising inflation expectations and uncertainty surrounding the interest rate outlook.
- Yields on Kenya's Eurobond papers decreased by an average of 6.13 bps w/w, in tandem with international bond market performance, on account of improved optimism following positive developments regarding a peace deal between the US and Iran.

Macroeconomic Developments

Exchange Rate

- The Kenya Shilling depreciated marginally against the USD, closing the week at KES 129.66 from KES 129.32 recorded the previous week, translating to a w/w depreciation of 0.3%. Consequently, the Shilling's YTD depreciation against the USD stood at 0.5%.
- Official forex reserves increased by 0.3% w/w to USD 13,240 Mn from USD 13,201 Mn. The current reserves now offer about 5.6 Months of import cover, meeting the CBK's statutory requirement of 4 months. The reserves also met the EAC's convergence requirement of 4.5 months of import cover.

Liquidity

- The Kenya Shilling Overnight Interbank Average (KESONIA) closed the week at 8.75%. We expect KESONIA to remain broadly aligned with the CBR.

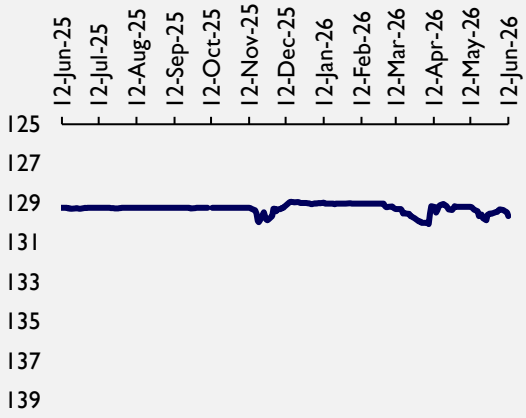

Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) Decision

- The Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) maintained the Central Bank Rate (CBR) at 8.75%. The decision was guided by expectations that Kenya's overall inflation is projected to remain within the target range over the near term, provided tensions in the Middle East ease. This outlook is supported by appropriate monetary policy measures, government interventions such as fuel subsidies and temporary VAT reductions, expected stability in food prices driven by favourable weather conditions, plus a stable exchange rate.
- Other key takeaways from the meeting: i) Banking asset quality improved to 15.3% in May from 15.6% in February, and ii) lending to the private sector improved to 9.3% in May 2026.

EPRA Pump Price Review– June 2026

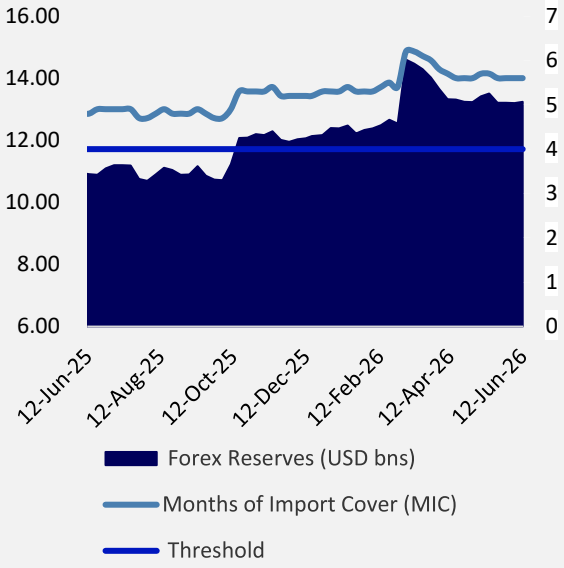

- The Energy & Petroleum Regulatory Authority (EPRA) released the maximum retail pump prices for the period 15th June 2026 to 14th July 2026, pointing to a mixed adjustment in domestic fuel prices amid heightened volatility in global energy markets.
- In Nairobi, Super Petrol prices declined marginally by KES 0.22 per litre to KES 214.03, while Diesel prices fell by KES 10.00 per litre to KES 232.86 per litre. Conversely, Kerosene prices increased by KES 8.38 per litre to KES 202.61 per litre, reflecting divergent movements in international product prices and government stabilization measures.
- The latest review comes against a backdrop of escalating geopolitical tensions in the Middle East, particularly concerns over potential disruptions to global oil supply routes. While government intervention helped cushion consumers from a sharper increase in pump prices, elevated international oil prices and higher landed fuel costs continue to exert upward pressure on domestic energy costs.
- Looking ahead, pump prices remain exposed to significant upside risks should geopolitical tensions persist or escalate further. Any sustained disruption to global crude oil supply chains could translate into higher landed costs and renewed pressure on retail fuel prices in subsequent pricing cycles, with potential spillover effects on transport costs and inflation.
