NCBA-Nedbank Deal

- The Nedbank–NCBA offer period is currently open and will close on 10th July 2026. Under the transaction, Nedbank seeks to acquire up to 66.0% of NCBA through a share-and-cash offer, valuing the transaction at approximately KES 109.90 Bn.
- Our view is that the transaction presents an attractive opportunity for shareholders, with the offer implying a premium to both the prevailing market price and our latest in-house valuation. Investors receiving Nedbank shares also gain exposure to a larger and more diversified pan-African banking franchise with a strong dividend track record.
- The transaction further strengthens NCBA's strategic position by combining its regional footprint and digital capabilities with Nedbank's balance sheet strength and corporate banking expertise. Our detailed house view of the transaction can be found (here).

AIB-AXYS Weekly Fixed Income Note

29th June 2026

Key Highlights

- Spot market Treasury bills remained oversubscribed, although the overall subscription rate moderated to 116.9% from 204.1% recorded the previous week. Demand remained heavily concentrated in the 91-day paper, which attracted KES 23.01Bn in bids against KES 4.00Bn offered, highlighting investors' continued preference for liquidity and shorter-duration securities. This pattern has persisted across recent auctions, with investors positioning for higher yields in the near term. In contrast, the 182-day and 364-day papers remained heavily undersubscribed, receiving bids totaling KES 2.27Bn and KES 2.78Bn, respectively, against offers of KES 10.00Bn each.
- The 91-day Treasury bill yield increased by 0.69 bps to 8.83%. Similarly, the 182-day and 364-day papers rose by 7.06 bps and 1.86 bps to 8.84% and 8.99%, respectively.
- The government is looking to raise KES 70.00Bn through the re-opening of the FXD1/2022/010, FXD1/2021/020, and FXD1/2026/030 bonds, which are earmarked for budgetary support in FY25/26. The bonds have quoted tenors to maturity of 5.8 yrs, 15.2 yrs, and 29.9 yrs, while the coupon rates are set at 13.4900%, 13.4440%, and 12.5000%, respectively. Bidding is set to close on 8th July 2026. We will be issuing further bidding guidance.
- The government announced a bond switch, inviting investors to exchange holdings from FXD1/2021/005, a 5-year bond with a coupon rate of 11.2770% and approximately 0.3 years to maturity, into FXD1/2012/020, a 20-year bond with a coupon rate of 12.0000% and 6.3 years to maturity. The government is targeting to switch KES 10.00Bn, with the offer period running from 26th June 2026 to 13th July 2026. The switch seeks to lengthen the government's debt maturity profile and ease near-term refinancing pressures, while providing investors with an opportunity to extend duration and lock in higher yields on longer-dated securities.
- Across the secondary bond market, the value of bonds traded increased by 72.7% w/w to KES 79.58 Bn from KES 46.08 Bn recorded a week prior. The NSE Bond Index witnessed a decrease of 33 bps w/w to 1,125.28 points, driven largely by an increase in the 20-year benchmark yields. The 20-year yield rose the most by 73.88 bps w/w, while the 5-year yield eased the most by 71.55 bps w/w.
- Yields on Kenya's Eurobond papers increased by an average of 4.02 bps w/w, reflecting a modest repricing in sovereign risk following the recent rally, even as investor confidence remained supported by improving macroeconomic fundamentals and easing geopolitical concerns.

Macroeconomic Developments

Exchange Rate

- The Kenya Shilling depreciated marginally against the USD, closing the week at KES 129.64 from KES 129.47 recorded the previous week, translating to a w/w depreciation of 0.1%. Consequently, the Shilling's YTD depreciation against the USD stood at 0.5%.
- Official forex reserves increased by 0.2% w/w to USD 13,173 Mn from USD 13,149 Mn. The current reserves now offer about 5.6 Months of import cover, meeting the CBK's statutory requirement of 4 months. The reserves also met the EAC's convergence requirement of 4.5 months of import cover.

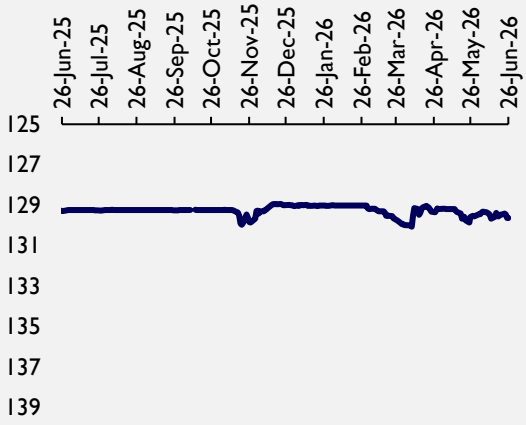

Liquidity

- The Kenya Shilling Overnight Interbank Average (KESONIA) closed the week at 8.75%. We expect KESONIA to remain broadly aligned with the CBR.

June Inflation Projection

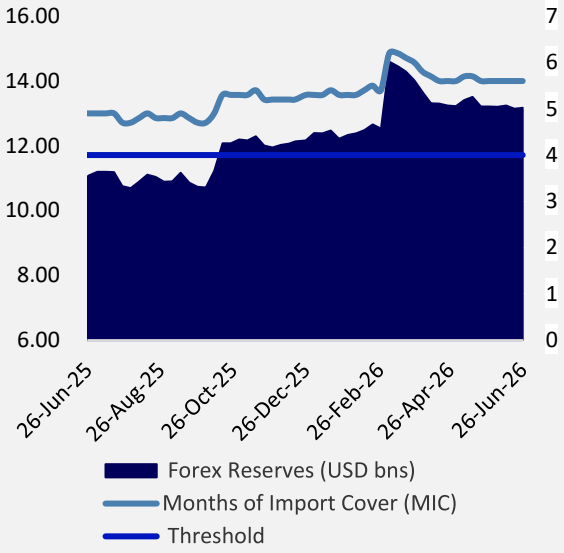

- June inflation data is due this week. We expect inflationary pressures to remain elevated, with headline inflation projected within the 6.4%–6.8% range. The outlook continues to be supported by the pass-through effects of higher domestic fuel prices and transport costs, although easing international oil prices, a relatively stable exchange rate, and contained food price pressures are expected to moderate the pace of further acceleration.
