NCBA-Nedbank Deal

- The Nedbank–NCBA offer period is currently open and will close on 10th July 2026. Under the transaction, Nedbank seeks to acquire up to 66.0% of NCBA through a share-and-cash offer, valuing the transaction at approximately KES 109.90 Bn.
- Our view is that the transaction presents an attractive opportunity for shareholders, with the offer implying a premium to both the prevailing market price and our latest in-house valuation. Investors receiving Nedbank shares also gain exposure to a larger and more diversified pan-African banking franchise with a strong dividend track record.
- The transaction further strengthens NCBA's strategic position by combining its regional footprint and digital capabilities with Nedbank's balance sheet strength and corporate banking expertise. Our detailed house view of the transaction can be found (here).

ABSA Bank Kenya Tender Offer

- Absa Group Limited has launched a tender offer to acquire up to 895.99 Mn ordinary shares in Absa Bank Kenya Plc at a cash consideration of KES 34.50 per share. The offer, which opened on 30th June 2026 and will close on 11th August 2026, could increase Absa Group's shareholding from 85.0% to 95.0%, with the remaining shares continuing to trade on the Nairobi Securities Exchange.
- Strategically, the transaction reinforces Absa Group's long-term commitment to its Kenyan subsidiary and shows confidence in the Bank's growth prospects.

AIB-AXYS Weekly Fixed Income Note

6th July 2026

Key Highlights

- Spot market Treasury bills remained oversubscribed, with the overall subscription rate rising to 146.6% from 116.9% recorded the previous week, pointing to sustained investor appetite for government securities. Demand continued to be heavily skewed towards the 91-day paper, which received KES 25.61Bn in bids against KES 4.00Bn offered, highlighting investors' preference for liquidity and shorter-duration exposure. In contrast, the 182-day and 364-day papers remained undersubscribed, attracting KES 2.49Bn and KES 7.09Bn in bids, respectively, against offers of KES 10.00Bn each. Accepted yields edged higher across all tenors, as investors continued to demand higher returns.
- The 91-day Treasury bill yield increased by 0.72 bps to 8.83%. Similarly, the 182-day and 364-day papers rose by 11.78 bps and 0.21 bps to 8.96% and 9.00%, respectively.
- The government is looking to raise KES 70.00Bn through the re-opening of the FXD1/2022/010, FXD1/2021/020 and FXD1/2026/030 bonds, which are earmarked for budgetary support in FY25/26. The bonds have a quoted tenor to maturity of 5.8 yrs, 15.2 yrs and 29.9 yrs while the coupon rates are set at 13.4900%, 13.4440% and 12.5000%, respectively. Bidding is set to close on 8th July 2026. We will be issuing further bidding guidance.
- The government announced a bond switch, inviting investors to exchange holdings from FXD1/2021/005, a 5-year bond with a coupon rate of 11.2770% and approximately 0.3 years to maturity, into FXD1/2012/020, a 20-year bond with a coupon rate of 12.0000% and 6.3 years to maturity. The government is targeting to switch KES 10.00Bn, with the offer period running from 26th June 2026 to 13th July 2026. The switch seeks to lengthen the government's debt maturity profile and ease near-term refinancing pressures, while providing investors with an opportunity to extend duration and lock in higher yields on longer-dated securities.
- Across the secondary bond market, the value of bonds traded decreased by 30.9% w/w to KES 54.99 Bn from KES 79.58 Bn recorded a week prior. The NSE Bond Index witnessed a decrease of 25 bps w/w to 1,128.05 points, driven largely by an increase in the 15-year benchmark yields. The 15-year yield rose the most by 36.36 bps w/w, while the 9-year yield eased the most by 42.61 bps w/w.
- Yields on Kenya's Eurobond papers increased by an average of 20.89 bps w/w, in tandem with global fixed-income markets, where yields in key markets climbed on a weekly basis.

Macroeconomic Developments

Exchange Rate

- The Kenya Shilling appreciated marginally against the USD, closing the week at KES 129.21 from KES 129.64 recorded the previous week, translating to a w/w appreciation of 0.3%. Consequently, the Shilling's YTD depreciation against the USD stood at 0.1%.
- Official forex reserves increased by 6.6% w/w to USD 14,047 Mn from USD 13,173 Mn. The current reserves now offer about 6 Months of import cover, meeting the CBK's statutory requirement of 4 months. The reserves also met the EAC's convergence requirement of 4.5 months of import cover.

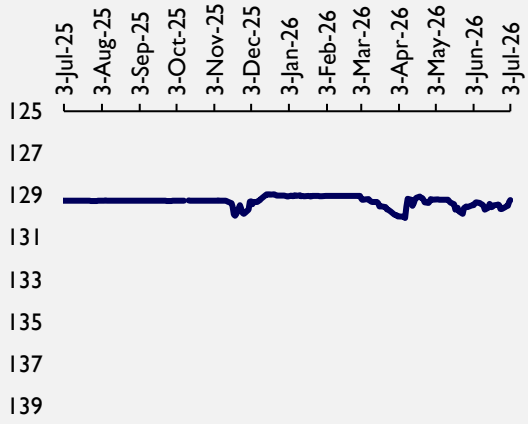

Liquidity

- The Kenya Shilling Overnight Interbank Average (KESONIA) closed the week at 8.75%. We expect KESONIA to remain broadly aligned with the CBR.

Kenya Consumer Price Index– June 2026

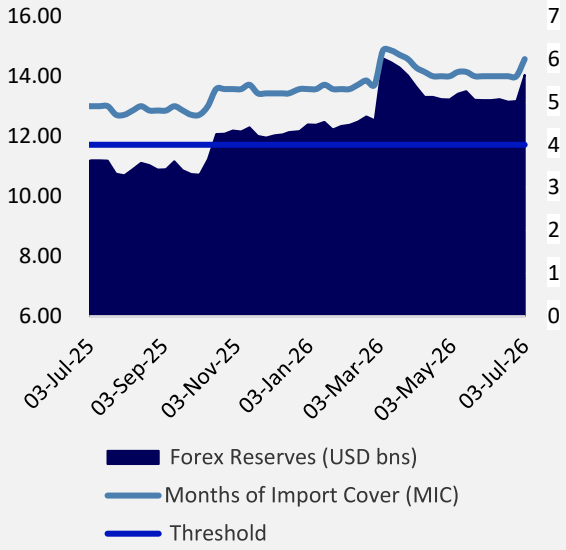

- Headline inflation eased to 6.4% in June 2026 from 6.7% in May, broadly in line with our projected range.
- Food inflation remained the largest contributor to headline inflation, with the Food and Non-Alcoholic Beverages index rising 8.6% y/y, while Transport inflation remained elevated at 16.1% despite lower pump prices during the month. Food prices were mixed, with tomatoes, beans and green grams declining, while maize grain, sukuma wiki, spinach and cooking oil registered increases. Meanwhile, lower diesel prices and marginally lower petrol prices, together with reduced electricity tariffs, helped cushion overall inflationary pressures.
- Underlying inflation showed early signs of easing. Core inflation moderated slightly to 3.1% from 3.2% in May, while non-core inflation declined to 15.1% from 16.0%, suggesting that supply-side pressures, particularly from food and energy, began to ease even as inflation remained above historical levels.
- Looking ahead, we expect inflation to gradually ease in the near term on the back of improving global oil supply following the reopening of the Strait of Hormuz. We expect lower oil prices in this month's fuel cycle by EPRA, which will, in turn, support the easing of non-core inflation.
